DECEITFUL POLITICIANS FOOL MOST OF THE PEOPLE - MOST OF THE TIME

In the 21st Century, with great advances in science and technology, should it not be possible for all the people of the world to live in peace, without wars, and be free from starvation and wide-scale disease?

Shouldn't we have a Parliament that represents those it was elected to serve? Isn't that what everyone seems to be striving for? At least that is what politicians and the news media tell us. No doubt many millions of ordinary people, who are not in a position to do anything about it, are genuinely concerned. However, there is a distinct difference in outlook between the rulers and the ruled. The world's mysteriously elected "leaders" are not sincere. They have for decades appeared to be sympathetic with the mood of voters and given the appearance of caring, but such play-acting is just a way of remaining in power.

How many normal, decent people would consider an expensive orgy of personal gluttony, described as a G8 conference a way forward to help the starving of Africa? Such actions would embarrass most voters. Yet world leaders regularly meet in private at G8 summit meetings, where they enjoy lavish and expensive meals where nothing is ever accomplished. These secret-society gatherings are unlikely ever to achieve anything, for most of the wars, debts, starvation and disease found in the third world have been made considerably worse by the very people who call themselves the caring "international community".

This anti-nationalist overseas aid confidence trick is sometimes described as "the poor of the rich countries giving to the rich of the poor countries." Since 1945 we have had no end of world government initiatives, all aimed, we are told, at bringing peace and prosperity to what are generally referred to as under-privileged people. Yet for millions of natives living in Africa and Asia conditions are steadily getting worse. This is why millions of third world people are desperate to get into Europe. Clearly, the inhabitants of our former colonies were much better off while under British rule. However, when one speaks an obvious truth he often finds himself up against an implacable enemy. In today's sham "democracy" all but a self-chosen few are forced to toe the line for fear of prosecution, loss of job, or eviction from home.

Conditions currently in the West are similar to those found in the former Soviet Union, where one could only prosper by going along with state tyranny. The evil activities of world government organizations have driven the poor of the Southern hemisphere out of their homelands. These same international bodies are also guilty of inviting these people to arrive illegally in Europe and America. Having got away with this they created laws to ensure they remain.

The phrase "international community" would give the impression that a number of countries had come together to plan a course of action over mutually shared problems. However, in reality the "international community" is comprised merely of a small number of money-grabbing, warmongering and despotic charlatans who have, like a mafia, tricked their way into the corridors of power.

Since emerging as a senior politician David Cameron has never impressed the public with any profound ideas. True to form his coalition government has pressed ahead with the same sinister, globalist agenda as every other post-1945 administration.

That this would happen was never explained to voters. If the main parties were forced to tell the truth regarding their objectives, none of them (Labour, Liberal or Conservative) would ever gain sufficient support to form a government.

BARNARDO'S AND THE GROWTH OF WORLD GOVERNMENT

Every major Western European political party has been hijacked by world government tyrants. The Freemasons, the Fabian Society, the BBC and many other institutions, which were once moral, are today rigidly following the international, socialist agenda. As soon as any new organisation begins to have any power or influence, world government agents will be looking to either take it over or stifle its activity. This will depend on whether the new body is in disagreement or can be skewed to fit the one-world image.

Gays make fine parents says Barnardo's boss

By Steve Doughty
Social Affairs Correspondent

A LEADING children's charity complained yesterday that too many people think gays make inferior parents.

A survey by Barnardo's said nearly a third of the public think heterosexual couples make better parents than same-sex couples.

ond best must be challenged. To suggest that a same sex couple is not as able to raise a child as a heterosexual couple is at once absurd and unsubstantiated.'

Having gained this information about Barnardo's, we were not surprised to see this subversive article appear early in the New Year.

The world government's latest acquisition is Barnardo's which used to run homes for orphans. This organisation has an excellent reputation for the great work it carried out over a very long period. Just before Christmas 2010 people were being urged not to donate money to Barnardo's because it no longer had a single care home.

A few weeks later it was reported that although Barnardo's was still receiving public money as a charity, it was now acting strictly as an adviser to politicians.

What this actually entails is creating information that can be used to back up the much-despised, politically-correct agenda.

THE NATION'S HEALTH IS AT RISK

Toxins, chemicals and other unhealthy substances have entered our food chain and water supply. This has dramatically affected people's health. Growing children and adolescents are most at risk. The younger generation is seriously unhealthy to the extent that, for the first time in history, we are likely to see many parents outlive their children.

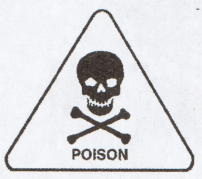
As far back as 1962 Rachel Carson published her best-selling book "Silent Spring" which warned of the dangers to all forms of life from a persistent and continuous poisoning of the whole human environment. From time to time we see articles in newspapers and magazines on the wide-scale deaths, diseases and genetic mutations which have resulted from man interfering with nature.



Despite the existence of various government ministries and departments supposedly responsible for public health and safety, no positive action is ever taken. Large corporations are often allowed by government to "self-regulate their operations", which roughly translated means they can do as they like.

GM food is known to be harmful in many ways, but has been approved by Parliament, despite around ninety per cent of the public having objections.

Lord David Sainsbury appears to be the only man in the UK who shows a strong desire to press ahead with the growing of GM crops. This manic donor poured millions of pounds into the Labour Party when it was in the doldrums to keep it going in order to gain support for his GM crop venture. The ploy seemed to work, for he was made "Science Minister" and allowed to overrule the wishes of the nation, risking permanent damage to our natural world as soon as he got the go-ahead to grow "Frankenstein food". He has since gained the backing of that illegal and tyrannical force known as the EU.

WE DON'T NEED TO LIVE IN A DANGEROUS WORLD!

THE FUTURE SHOULD BE IN OUR HANDS.

Do you have friends who complain about the state of the country yet only listen to the people who have caused the problems? Have they been conditioned to close their ears to obvious truth? We cannot resolve the situation until the majority of our people are prepared to understand the cause of our nightmares and find the resolve to do something about it.

While mental laziness remains common the electoral process will work against us. How many people actually support the shysters, money grabbers, warmongers and traitors who currently infest Parliament? Probably very few! Yet through monopolising the media, the use of occult forces and a carrot and stick approach to employment, the guilty manage to fend off their more worthy opponents.

Every week our freedom becomes more restricted by new laws, the growth of political correctness and extra power given to unaccountable foreign bodies, including the EU. Through its inaction the public is selling itself and future generations into slavery. That those in power cannot be trusted should be clear to all. The government makes vital decisions that affect all of our lives. So let us get rid of them and elect people who can be trusted to work for us. Why not? It isn't rocket science.

WHAT HAS CAUSED DIVISIONS IN SOCIETY AND SAPPED THE NATION'S WILL?

Although Russia may no longer pose a military threat, a Soviet plan to destroy the West is still in operation.

Around 90 years ago, at the 3rd International of the Comintern, Lenin predicted the defeat of the West and the annihilation of its civilisation by non-military means. The West was to be defeated by its own hand.

Lenin said "With our right hand we will stretch out and spread subversion, pacifism and civil war among the nations of the West. With our left hand we will shake the sleeping senility of the East and arouse them to resurgent nationalism to overwhelm the West."

"Stupid and decadent, the democratic leaders of the West will rejoice to co-operate in their own destruction. This is a declaration, the strategy and the tactics of the New War by proxy." In the so-called communist utopia, the Soviet government was not seen to fire in action, but managed to slaughter over a hundred million without the loss of a single soldier (excluding in World War II), yet for many fools the ideology remained untarnished.

Because this war is a contest of ideas and beliefs rather than bombs and bullets, both the initiative and the master weapon are in the hands of communists. Success or failure depends entirely upon the ability to change the minds of their opponents, their governments, heads of state and all those who have power or influence.

Britain's enemies are the liberals, neoconservatives, socialists, fools and traitors at the top who go along with liberal, left-wing ideas.

At the end of World War II and in the decade that followed, no one could have predicted the degradation of every standard, the decay of moral authority or pandemic rottenness that exist in Britain today. A rottenness that has come about to a large degree by the philosophy of the Farewell State - where "All men shall be paid for their existence and none shall pay for their sins."

Our decline has had a lot to do with the destructive force of communist / Marxist politics and the widespread acceptance of Freudian immorality.

Those implementing Lenin's diktat were responsible for war in the West in 1914-18 and 1939-45. They have created conflict in society by setting workers against management - poor against rich (class war) - black against white - men against women - anarchists against authority - children against parents - homosexuals against heterosexuals - and most recently, Muslims against Christians. (Muslims were enticed to the UK for that purpose.)

The only opposition to Leninism has come from patriots, true Christians and nationalists.

The West faces a bleak future now that China has become the world's major manufacturer. The Chinese have played little part in this takeover. It was arranged in the stock markets of Wall Street and London and made possible by giant retail corporations, few of which are owned by Christians.

The plan to destroy the West in preparation for a "Godless World Government" is being carried out by many organisations and groups. Spearheading the attack on every nation are bankers, communists, Fabians and Zionists, all working in unison.

Although long dead, Karl Marx's plot against civilization is still creating numerous problems. His writings have skewed the thinking of countless students, who have gone on to become politicians, journalists, writers, filmproducers etc. Too many people making critical decisions are incapable of looking at any problem objectively; everything they view must be from a Marxist perspective.

His hypocritical ideas are so influential in the West that works of exceptional importance by great national thinkers, prophets and writers are kept from the public's gaze. Only left-wing material that supports Marx's subversive outpourings gain rave reviews and space on establishment book shelves.

Marx was a hypocrite; he never did a day's work in his life, preferring to idle his time in the company of the wealthy. All this was paid for by his friend Engels. Marx actually despised the workers and did his best to avoid them.

WHY IS THE PUBLIC SO SLOW TO LEARN?

After decades of betrayal, the public has only just come to realise what self-serving, money-grabbing, incompetent tyrants many MPs and councillors are. They all share the same left-wing, politically correct views. So different are their aims to those of the public that many people have voiced the opinion "They must come from another planet." But of course they do not!

The reason for their strange and incomprehensible behaviour is that to be selected as a major party candidate you must belong to at least one world government-seeking organisation – one that is pushing an "anti-people" agenda.

You will have noticed how the good and virtuous who stand against bad practice and corruption are viciously attacked by those in authority, who have placed themselves, like Gods, above criticism.

Despite regular damning reports of schools and the high number of pupils leaving illiterate and innumerate, nothing is ever done to remedy the situation. This is because Parliament and councils have made it that way as it helps them to achieve their final ambition.

Likewise, hospitals have become dirty and incompetent places where many patients die needlessly. As macabre as it may sound, this is due to a well thought-out political strategy. For as long as world government tyrants remain in power, no discussion of the EU or mass immigration will be allowed, for both these projects are essential for the most evil fanatics to be able to take control of the world.

In 1960 Marxists made an assault on our schools and took them over. The efficient system which had been developed and used successfully for generations was scrapped and replaced by what was termed "comprehensive education". In reality, this Marxist programme was designed to ensure white, British children would leave school unprepared for the workplace. It is also a means to attack Christianity and bring up children without aspiration, loyalty, responsibility or moral values.

It has been reported that ex-soldiers and Australian back-packers have been amongst those employed to teach our children. It has been proven that a high percentage of so-called regular teachers do not fully understand the subjects they teach.

Sometimes teachers can be seen marching with their red communist banners, either in league with a subversive union or in support of some left-wing cause. It came as no surprise when teachers, looking incredibly scruffy, marched in support of "left-list" candidates in the period leading up to the last general election.

On February 19th, 2011 the Daily Mirror carried three separate reports on teachers. On the front page teacher Andrew Lindo admitted butchering his girlfriend and dumping her in a suitcase. Next, two teachers from Addington High school in South London were suspended for allegedly putting sex pictures of themselves on the school computer. Thirdly, we read a report of a teacher from Romsey School in Hants who had sex with a 14-year-old girl he is alleged to have kidnapped.

We need to drive this unprincipled, socialist scum out of our schools just as quickly as they arrived. If you are still in doubt regarding the effects of Marxist education, watch the Jeremy Kyle show on television. Or consider the dire poverty and desperation to be found in Wales and the North of England after a hundred years of staunch socialism and anti-nationalism.

In the early 1980s British doctors were lured to America with the prospect of higher wages. They were replaced with immigrants from Asia, many of whom had never been checked for their ability to carry out the skilled work they undertook. In 1983, in readiness for the lowering of hospital standards, English and Irish nurses who had undergone full training and worked long-term on hospital wards were sacked and replaced with young women from the Far East. The government's excuse was that it would save money. It was also done to increase immigration, move whites down the class structure and make hospitals less efficient.

Nothing has pushed forward the world government agenda more than unnecessary wars and revolutions. For over two hundred years people in the northern hemi-sphere have had little or no say in the running of their countries. To blame Western Europeans for wars, or attribute revolutions to them, is therefore ridiculous. The world government tyrants, led by bankers, can be held responsible for every war since the Napoleonic conflicts.

To win a war, you first need to identify the enemy. Our enemies are not nationalists, fascists or those such as Saddam Hussein, but the politicians who have come to power by way of the public ticking their box on ballot papers.

IN A BID TO SAVE THE WEST AND CHRISTENDOM

Europeans have lost control of their countries, their politics, cultures, religion and ways of life. Worse still, those who now dominate every aspect of their lives are hell-bent on eradicating the white, Christian European nations as fast as possible. This is being done through wars, immigration, race-mixing and reducing birth-rates.

Christianity is built on honesty and trust which is exemplary if one lives entirely among good Christians. However, being trusting and honest leaves one at a disadvantage when living among liars, swindlers, cheats and mafia types who view Christian principles as a weakness to be exploited.

To be a good Christian one has to be brave and prepared to criticise and admonish the same kind of anti-Christ people that Jesus did. The kind of groups and organisations that had Jesus crucified still exist today. In fact they are more powerful and arrogant than ever. From their point of view, they have seen off the son of God, and as a result, reason that there is no one else who could possibly cause them any problems.

In recent years, particularly in Britain, the various branches of the long-established Christian church have been infiltrated and taken over by Marxists, left-wing atheists, perverts, and worshippers of both Mammon and Satan. The result of this can be seen in the blatant victimization of Christians by evil men, through what is termed "equality" and "political correctness".

Christians need to realise what they follow is purely a religion, whereas under the cover of Judaism and Islam, business and power politics operate. Most whites are unaware that others are competing against them.

Since the 1920s Communists and Zionists have worked together with one common aim. This is to occupy all positions that give power and influence throughout the developed world. These would-be world dictators have gone a long way in achieving their goals, and with the help of selected brainwashed puppets, already control all the Western governments and much of each respective nation's mass media and commerce. It is due to Western Europeans being generally unaware of this fact that they now find themselves unable to compete with the people from the aforementioned religions.

If Christian Europeans do not act fast they will find themselves living in slavery and poverty while having to endure an intolerable un-Christian way of life. Every country in our continent is suffering from a breakdown in civilisation brought about by its own anti-nationalist government. Without exception these are self-serving administrations which have been foisted on the people by way of a fraudulent party system.

There is not a single European nation that controls its own affairs. Against our wishes, we are all rapidly being drawn into an anti-nationalist global dictatorship. At first nonsensical and damaging changes were attributed to an obscure, unseen force that was labeled "political correctness".

Latterly, the Anti-Christ movement has revealed itself and, as you might expect, it is comprised mainly of self-interested career politicians, international financiers, communists, warmongers, multimillionaires (who pretend to be socialists) and international bodies such as the IMF, the World Development Organisation, the United Nations and the EU. These self-selected and unrepresentative, dictatorial organizations were formed soon after 1945 in order to take power away from the people and their governments.

WE ARE LIVING IN TIMES OF GREAT CHANGE

Are you concerned about what is going on in our country and the rest of the world? You should be! In 1939 the world was led by Christian Europeans. From 1945 that power has increasingly been lost to the most evil private organizations, in their bid to create a world-government.

THE REALITY OF THE "SWINGING SIXTIES"

For teenagers in the austere times of the early post-Second World War period, the arrival of Rock and Roll, mini-skirts, night clubs and wild music festivals seemed exciting and liberating. There were, however, sinister motives behind the creators of this phenomenon.

Throughout history wisdom had been passed from one generation to the next. In the West, during the 1960s, that was to a large extent curtailed. Many naive teenagers since then have been influenced in a bad way, by people far more ambitious, shrewd, cunning and aware of what they want to achieve than they. As a result a dangerous belief now prevails that everyone's views are equal, and that we are all free to live our lives as we wish. The wisdom that had been built up over generations has to a large degree been lost.

This nation-wrecking message has been constantly repeated throughout the entertainment and music industry, as well as television and the entire education system. This mind-bending has led to an increase in violence, anarchy, depression, loneliness and under-achievement, as well as widespread drug and alcohol dependence. Suicide rates in recent years have also been on the increase. These catastrophic changes did not come about by accident; they were planned.

Those seeking to create a world government said that "At the 'time of the great change', (which is now), it would be necessary to create a population that was divided, chaotic and in a confused mental state, for a well ordered, united and disciplined people would mobilise against them." Have they not achieved their objective?

DUE TO PARLIAMENT'S GENOCIDE PROGRAMME BRITAIN HAS BECOME A NON-WHITE COUNTRY

Without consultation, through lies and deceit, Parliament has brought about a mass invasion of our country. A report was circulated when New Labour was first elected, stating that there was an "intention to get the British outnumbered by foreigners in their own land by 2020."

Alarm bells should have rung when a Labour government announced "There would be no upper limit to the number of immigrants allowed in." This came despite immigration already having created numerous problems and hardships. It is monstrous that politicians should carry out what can only be described as a genocide programme against their fellow countrymen in order to destroy the four great British nations.

There has been an all-party agreement for decades that immigration and the EU must never be seriously debated, and certainly never mentioned during election periods. The MPs who are rabidly the most anti-white-Christian get themselves re-elected by standing in constituencies which have been filled with black or coloured immigrants; Margaret Hodge's constituency is a typical example.

Whenever a challenge is made to the establishment on immigration, the EU or the fraudulent banking system, you will see liberals, socialists and neo-conservatives uniting to defend their position. Most people must also be aware of the anti-white-Christian nature of many public sector workers. As in Stalin's Russia, there are terms of employment.

The true Conservative Party ceased to exist in 1939 when Winston Churchill and his international financier, Marxist, communist, Zionist and warmongering alliance seized power.

All governments since then have given their allegiance to the same self-serving groups. Parliament only values the public as a means of providing tax revenue, doing menial work and fighting wars, wherever and whenever it decides.

Margaret Thatcher won her terms in office by voicing National Front policies during her election campaigns. You will remember her remarks about "The public being rather afraid of being swamped by these people." Once elected, the swamping carried on faster than ever. Although despising everything the National Front stood for, she implied that if the EU proved to become more of a problem, her government would pull us out.

The "Iron Lady" then went on to surrender further sovereign power to the EU by signing the "Single European Act." How can anyone in their right mind support such treachery?

In many English schools, white students are now a tiny minority. Politicians have achieved what neither Hitler or Napoleon could have, even if they had so wished.

I'm English ..and fined

PATRIOT Christopher Molyneux was fined for calling himself ENGLISH. JPs fined the dad £75 with £75 costs after he refused to label himself British on a census form. Molyneux, 56, of Poynton, Cheshire, returned it, objecting to the question "What's your ethnic group?" He would not tick the "British" box.

GEORGE'S TEMPLE

...eeman . . . chalked up another win

In 2001 Christopher Molyneux was taken to court as a criminal, and fined for calling himself English on his census form.

In response you would have expected millions of Britons to march furiously on Parliament. Of course, nothing happened; too many of our people have a perverse sense of priorities, preferring to attend a football match or watch television.

A large amount of the American and UK defence budgets are used so that Jews can call themselves Israelis. Why cannot the Europeans be as nationalistic?

The time to mobilise for our defence wasn't when our troops went into Iraq; it wasn't in 1939 or 1914; it is now.

First however, we must get one thing clear: our foe is not a foreign army, but a long-standing enemy within.

THE PUBLIC ARE ANGRY WITH POLITICIANS, BUT SHOULDN'T MORE CARE BE TAKEN AS TO WHO TAKE THE TOP JOBS?

One doesn't require any qualifications to become a Cabinet Minister or PM. Nor is there a requirement to show any understanding of our country's problems, or have the faintest idea how to solve them. For senior politicians it is not even compulsory to view their job as serving the public.

A well-balanced government should consist of people from every profession, each with knowledge and skills developed over years. What we have instead is an over-abundance of academics and theorists, who wouldn't be able to replace a sparking plug in a motor car or screw a shelf to a wall.

Michael Howard, one-time leader of the Conservative Party, admitted on a radio programme that if he had an electrical failure in his house he wouldn't have the first idea where to find the fuse box.

We need to know a lot more about those seeking power: what organisations they belong to; who they associate with; if they are moral or corruptible. Do they uphold the values expected of people in public office, and do they have the courage to hold to their convictions when ridiculed, threatened, bribed or intimidated?

Acts of deceit and trickery are regularly employed to make unknown politicians suddenly prominent. From there they are often catapulted into power as soon as the public loses confidence in the presiding government. This must stop. It is a recipe for disaster.

We need to spend a long time scrutinising those seeking high office. Britons have been let down by politicians for decades. Some may say the public made a bad choice.

However, the public plays no part in choosing those found on the ballot papers. For as long as anyone can remember, the most inappropriate people have held the post of Home and Foreign Secretary. Likewise, throughout the post-war period, Education Secretaries and Chancellors of the Exchequer could not have done more to damage Britain than they have.

We have foolishly allowed anti-British communists to control the UK's armed forces and defence budget. Without restraint, other traitors use a large part of the nation's wealth, working within the EU, destroying Britain and taking away our freedom. In The Flame, we often expose establishment groups that conspire against us. However, if despite warnings, Britain's enemies gain at our expense, the public have only themselves to blame.

I'LL SCRAP BRITAIN

Threat by new EC boss Blair backed

By GEORGE PASCOE-WATSON
Deputy Political Editor

TONY Blair's choice as EC boss last night admitted he was out to destroy British independence.

Romano Prodi said Britain would become part of a United States of Europe ruled from Brussels if we scrapped the Pound.

The new European Commission President's boast confirms what critics of Europe have warned for years. Tory Trade supremo John Redwood said:

"He has revealed himself to be an out-and-out federalist.

"He wants to abolish Britain and replace it with the U.S. of Europe.

"We warned Tony Blair of this before he was appointed. In this what Mr Blair wants as well".

The Sun has told him of growing fears of Socialist backing Britain's independence would not be at risk from the euro.

In an official interview with the Financial Times "The real goal is to draw on the consequences of the single currency and create a political Europe.

"It is important to have a common European goal. The euro was not just a bankers' decision or a technical decision.

"It was a decision that completely changed the nature of the nation states. We have to go beyond that."

A political Europe means Brussels controlling taxes, interest rates and major laws. Mr Blair and Chancellor Gordon Brown have repeatedly claimed Britain's independence would not be at risk from the euro.

The Sun Says — Page Eight

Prodi . . . goal is euro-state

It is not as though the public are not given warning of the terrible things Parliament intends to do, or the unsavoury people it enters into alliances with. Reports in the newspapers that Tony Blair had forged an alliance with fanatical Italian communist, Romano Prodi, to bring an end to Britain as a nation state should have caused Blair's immediate removal from office and arrest for high treason.

Margaret Thatcher was not the great patriotic leader the establishment would have us believe. She was brought in to replace Edward Heath, as a stooge to act for the Bilderberger group.

The multi-national European flag design worn here by Margaret Thatcher was intended to deceive people into believing the EU was the coming-together of European countries. That is not the aim at all!

They have already divided the world into little grid reference squares, so they will be able to identify regions after all countries have disappeared. This is the aim of the "internationalist" (New World Order) and it is the most ambitious form of tyrannical imperialism ever conceived.

This is why the EU must be brought to an end. To rid ourselves of this monstrous imposition would not require a referendum, for handing control of our country to a foreign body is the highest form of treason. All those involved in top-level EU work should be put in jail awaiting trial. If the British hadn't so casually lost control of their own country the necessary action could have been taken decades ago.

British nationality had always been determined by parentage. This was changed to place of birth by our Parliamentary enemies. This means that true Britons born while their parents are abroad are deemed aliens, and have no right to reside in the UK. While any foreigner giving birth in the UK can register the child as British. There are also many millions of aliens who have wrongly gained British citizenship due to Parliament handing out passports as though they were sweet samples.

The Race Relations Acts were introduced to enforce racial integration which would, if retained, lead to the eventual disappearance of the European character of our island people.

GIBRALTAR AND A SELL-OUT BY ANTI-BRITISH MARXISTS

Gibraltar has been under British rule since the King of Spain signed the Treaty of Utrecht in 1713. This pact guaranteed that the entire property - including the town and castle, together with the port, fortifications and forts - would forever be yielded to the Crown of Great Britain.

Untainted by socialism, liberalism and neo-conservatism, Gibraltar is reminiscent of Britain during the 1950s. The fiercely pro-British population are keen to see that their admirable way of life will endure. (This article was written in 2005 - Gibraltar, like everywhere else, has since deteriorated.)

During November 2001, while holding the position of Foreign Minister, Peter Hain hinted that he would like to see Gibraltar handed over to the Spanish government. He said it was time the colony thought seriously about relaxing its historic ties with the UK. (We think it is time we thought about re-erecting the gallows and conducting a few hangings.) An overwhelming majority of Gibraltarians made it clear that they were furious with the minister's treacherous actions. Peter Hain then had the audacity to criticise Europeans for being stuck in the past and poured scorn on their reluctance to take part in negotiations. The anti-apartheid campaigner, having helped bring bloodshed, murder and genocide to Africa, is now helping create similar conditions in the UK. For some time we have been witnessing a rise in racial attacks and criminal activity as the UK comes to resemble post-colonial Africa more by the day. That Peter Hain would like to create a multi-racial hell-hole in Gibraltar was made clear by his statement that he was "looking to a future in which Gibraltar has an open border."

Jack Straw, while Foreign Secretary, lined up to sell out our fellow countrymen living on this British outpost. In 2002 this wretched man said that he was "close to a deal to share the sovereignty of Gibraltar with Spain." There has been no fresh news on the subject, but you can bet that plans for a sell-out are still afoot. You may remember that Straw (or whatever his real name is) had been under surveillance by M15 while he was a leading student activist. Tony Blair, an ex-Anti Nazi League student Marxist, is also in favour of Britain cutting ties with Gibraltar and forcing the whole of Europe into a multi-racial, socialist republic.

A staggering 98% of the 30,000 British citizens registered their opposition to any Spanish government involvement in the Rock.

If you are taking a holiday, why not consider going to Gibraltar? You will find the people warm and hospitable, and they are our natural allies.

A CLOSER LOOK AT THE MAN WHO WANTS TO GIVE GIBRALTAR AWAY

Peter Hain should never have been allowed to enter the UK, let alone be given a free hand in giving away our territory. Too many people seem to have forgotten that this Kenyan troublemaker was a fanatical anti-white agitator in South Africa, who together with his communist allies was responsible for hundreds of whites being brutally murdered by blacks. While Hain has been living in luxury as a government minister here in the safety of the UK, millions of black victims of the regimes he helped get into power are suffering from civil wars, starvation and disease. AIDS in particular is rampant throughout black South Africa. It is mainly whites, the people who Peter Hain resents being there, who run the AIDS hospitals.

Kenya, the land of Hain's birth, like Uganda, was a fully developed, civilised, modern and prosperous country before the anti-colonialists brought an end to British rule.

Only recently have black Africans from our former colonies come to realise how much better off they were before they attained so-called independence. Several black women have said to us recently how they wished their country was still under British rule. We have replied that if Britain was under British rule it would be a good idea. In colonial times we had an abundance of capable Britons who were able to administer competently all the various government departments within our Empire.

Today this feat would not be possible due to seriously reduced levels of education and a general lack of personal discipline. The worrying fall in educational standards was made possible by a left-wing takeover of our schools, colleges and universities. This took place during the early 1960s when Harold Wilson's Zionist/Marxist regime was in power.

AT THIS TIME WE SHOULD RULE OUT THE IDEA OF AN ELECTED MONARCHY

This is not because we are satisfied with the present Royal Family, but because there is not a "snowball's chance in hell" of the right person being elected.

Within living memory, every British government has been a disaster and totally anti-British, yet they were all elected. Favourite for the Royal position would be those with whom the public are well acquainted. Would we end up with a Queen Jordan, some unfunny anarchist modern comedian or a trade union leader? Africans would be opting for a black monarch and many politically-correct-thinking whites would also.

Shirley Williams, while Education Secretary, called for a black Prime Minister, saying "It would bring an end to the idea that whites run things in this country." (In fact we don't; we have for many years been dispossessed and downtrodden.)

Due to our enemies holding strict control over the dissemination of news, and their censorship over what the public reads, sees and hears, it is impossible for the right kind of person to gain public acclaim. Britain during the past fifty years has produced several would-be outstanding leaders but, due to the Soviet-style conditions that exist in the UK, the public are generally unaware even of their existence.

The purpose of "The Flame" is to enlighten the public of what it needs to know, in order for people to make an informed choice.

There are numerous publications approved by the establishment that brainwash the public into believing what it wants them to believe, and these can be obtained virtually everywhere. However, this journal and others like it will never be found in shops, libraries or places of education. This is due to that strict censorship I speak of.

A King or Queen needs to understand their basic duties. The Royal Family first and foremost has to protect our nation and defend our Christian faith. Why isn't the present Royal Family defending Christians against the onslaught we are facing today?

The Royals have not said a word because they are strictly controlled by an unseen force that rules over them. That same unseen force would not allow a good monarch to be installed.

Prince Charles was led astray as a child politically, to a large degree by his uncle, Louis Mountbatten. Charles has said that if he becomes King he will be a defender of all faiths. Electing a suitable person would be impossible as most of those voting have been brainwashed in the same nation-wrecking, multi-racialist way as Prince Charles.

You have probably noticed it is the law-making political establishment that is preventing Christians from following their religion, and not the many Muslims, Hindus, Buddhists or Sikhs living in the UK.

The most vital task of a monarch is to defend the nation. The nation, for those who may have forgotten, is comprised of the English, Scots, Welsh and Northern Irish. All of these nations are exclusively white European. Therefore, an ideal ruler in today's political madhouse would be viewed as a racist. How many of those voting would consider themselves "anti-racist", due to their minds being skewed to suit our nation's enemies?

We do not want any change to the monarchy at the moment - try to fix it and it will surely be broken even more. Our biggest obstacle to getting things right is the public's propensity for making the wrong decision

It made a mistake when too many backed Cromwell and his alien usurer manipulators against Charles 1st, which led to the end of the ruler monarch and the rise of a corrupt and unrepresentative Parliament.

It made the mistake of allowing Winston Churchill and his world-government fanatical friends to take us to war, and made yet another fatal decision when it voted the pro-marketeer, Edward Heath, in as Prime Minister. (It is this kind of mistake that has placed the world under the control of Anti-Christ usurers.) Give the uninformed public a one-sided (or Hobson's) choice, which is what it is only ever allowed, and we will end up with an even greater problem.

GEORGE ORWELL PREDICTED THAT SOME WILL BE MORE EQUAL THAN OTHERS

In the Jewish News of Dec 31st 2010 Geena asked the Rabbi "Why can't we marry out?"

The Rabbi replied, "Halachic Judaism really began after Sinai. As a part of that eternal covenant we undertook to observe many mitzvot designed to preserve us as a distinct people."

Could you see a white European getting away with this perfectly sound explanation after he had been arrested and hauled into court on charges of racism?

Another young lady said, although she works with many immigrants there was no chance of her marrying out as she only socialises within the Jewish community.

WORLD PROBLEMS – HOW THE GOOD HAND POWER TO SATAN

Many Europeans look aghast at the immoral actions of their government as British and American servicemen, in particular, are sent to attack sovereign countries where we have no right to interfere.

In whose interest are these attacks, usurpations of power, and thefts of national assets taking place? The answer is the secretive New World Order that wants to rule the world. Are these murderers, corrupters, warmongers, liars, cheats, thieves, destroyers of nations, cultures and civilisations really the kind of people who should be in control of Western governments and, as a result, have the ability to legislate for developing countries? The answer must certainly be no!

There are millions of good Christians who attend church every week to ensure they follow God's laws. These church-going Christians, even collectively, do not possess the power to start wars, put countries in debt or bully nations into acceding to unreasonable demands.

Yet, through ignorance, it is good Christians who have voted the Anti-Christ people into power. There are several modern-day Christian churches who feel Satan has got so far with his programme of destruction that he should be helped along until the situation becomes so terrible that Jesus Christ will have to take over. This makes no sense at all. We know which politicians are following the Anti-Christ agenda and, logically, it can only be those with the ability to make changes that are responsible for the rise of Satan.

The drive toward world government has created a situation where power is concentrated in very few hands. By taking charge of the West's armed forces, today's rulers can inflict carnage on a scale unimagined at the time of the English or French revolutions.

The saying that "Power corrupts, and absolute power corrupts absolutely" is very true. See how Tony Blair, George Bush, Winston Churchill and now Obama, Sarkozy, and Cameron, having been elected merely as inappropriate national leaders, went on to feel they have a right to act as universal Gods, despite their characters being seriously flawed.

"Surely Jesus didn't allow himself to be brutally crucified in order for those claiming to be his followers to support the likes of his evil killers."

But then it is written, that at this time, the majority will be deceived.
With all the modern forms of communication this doesn't need to be the case.

The tyrannical usurers, who control the world today, have gained most of their power by organising wars and revolutions in order to overthrow kings, dictators and even democracies. They have got away with their immoral challenges by falsely claiming to be giving freedom to the people.

These attacks have become known as regime changes, where usually a recognised national government is replaced by agents of the Anti-Christ.

According to Christian teaching we are put on Earth to resist evil temptation. Then why, by voting for the major parties, has the predominately Christian public give Satan's army complete control over our lives? The reason is that most of the public allow pushy and determined people, with their own agenda, to do their thinking for them and take actions on their behalf.

When it comes to self-preservation some other races are far more alert. One plausible explanation for the sudden attempt to remove certain long-established Arab leaders is that, unlike Christian Europeans, they refuse to allow their people to become slaves to the banker's system of usury.

One has to be very brave in Britain today to stand up for the British. Doesn't this tell you that there is something terribly wrong with the political establishment we have?

This is good reason to support those patriots and moral Christians who raise their heads over the parapet on your behalf. We are suffering problems now that should never have arisen.

To become a teacher in a comprehensive school today one is not only expected to give preference to children of immigrants, but be prepared to instil in white children a loathing of their own race. This classroom betrayal is followed up by other dangerous race-hate nonsense, which suggests that to overcome an illusory racism one should take a black partner. New evidence of this long-established, anti-white programme came to light in September 1952, and is recorded in the files of the Canadian Intelligence Service.

This non-military warfare states, "We will identify with the races of Asia and Africa in the interest of wiping out racial tensions", (that they created with their immigration programme) "whites must be forbidden to mate with whites. The white woman must cohabit with members of the dark races, and white men with black women.

"Thus the white race will disappear, and our most dangerous enemy will become only a memory." Like fools we allow our children at school to be programmed for our own racial suicide.

A MESSAGE FROM THE EDITOR

The Flame will continue in this format and come out at irregular intervals. Unlike previous editions it will remain in print. Regaining control of our country and installing a representative government has been the aim of many patriots, nationalists and Christians for many decades. However, I do not feel this will be possible until the majority of the public are made aware of who controls their lives, and how a few are able to inflict harmful and unpopular changes on to the majority.

LIVING UNDER AN ANTI-BRITISH DICTATORSHIP CALLED DEMOCRACY

Our political system has been engineered to serve solely the interests of several clandestine groups. Understanding this should explain why the public never gets what it wants, while having to pay dearly for Parliament's actions, of which the majority strongly disapprove. Due to the clear anti-British nature of government, MPs frantically try to convince us that we live in a democracy.

IF NOT FOR THE BRITISH, IN WHOSE INTEREST DOES PARLIAMENT WORK?

Most news reports are slanted and biased to bolster the world-government position, while others are censored out altogether. For instance, you are probably unaware that all American Presidents and British Prime Ministers are routinely summoned to appear before a board of Jewish interrogators to ensure they are suitably subservient.

In mid-March 2011 David Cameron was called for an interview by a politically-active team from the "Jewish News". The subsequent report was titled "THE DAVID CAMERON INTERVIEW (part two) THE PRIME MINISTER ON ANTI-SEMITISM AND HIS JEWISH ROOTS."

His Jewish roots may not be strong, but he made it clear that his loyalty is to leaders of the Jewish community and, like his masters, he views European Christians as fools to be exploited. Needless to say, there was no report of this disgraceful act in the general tabloid press.

Within days of Cameron vowing to faithfully serve a gang of self-appointed Zionist administrators, the coalition government started a warring process against Libya's Colonel Gaddafi.

No doubt, Cameron picked up on the anti-British sentiments of the Jewish News team he met, when he said soon after, that "Britain is responsible for many of the world's historic problems." This was followed up by claims by the Conservative leader that "all white Oxford University is a disgrace" He maintains not enough black students are enrolled there. This is of course a "racist attack", similar to that of the former BBC controller Greg Dyke who claimed that the staff were hideously white." The coalition government then proceeded to give yet another amnesty, to thousands more illegal immigrants. The British armed forces should be defending our borders. They do not because, like Parliament, they are not serving our nation. As a result of this dire situation, half of the indigenous population have lost interest in voting. However, this pathetic kind of inaction isn't going to get us our country back.

Daily, we see our people suffering injustice. Think of the motorist summoned for eating a Mars bar while stationary, held up in a traffic-jam, while alien murderers are given complete freedom to roam our streets. Christians are being persecuted in the UK, while people of every other race, culture and religion seem exempt from any form of censure, when they do wrong. Then, if you look at the nature of the beast that controls our lives, you shouldn't be surprised.

Many Britons know that the system is skewed against them. During April 2011, a certain Lord Maurice Glasman, a very important member of the Labour Party policy committee, admitted that "Labour lied about immigration" and that "mass immigration is being used to keep wages down." How can anyone in their right mind believe that the Labour Party represents the British?

Maurice Glasman is described as a Jewish academic, just like Peter Mandelson, Jack Straw, the Miliband brothers and a countless array of judges. (France also has its Strauss-Kahns and Sarkozys.)

Whenever anyone suggests reducing in any way the flood of foreigners entering the UK, Nick Clegg flies into an uncontrollable rage. Why is he so strangely anti-British? It would not be completely fair to blame Clegg for the way he is. Leftists believe in indoctrinating young children into following them. This is made clear in their boast, "Instil your thoughts into a child until he is ten and you can have him for the rest of his life".

On 6th April 2011 The Daily Telegraph reported how Nick Clegg's father used his connections to get his son a prestigious EU position in Brussels. The friends of the family they turned to for assistance were Lord Peter Carrington and Leon Brittan.

Leon Brittan, real name Brittanisky, is an anti-British Lithuanian Jew who, together with his cousin Malcolm Rifkind, conspired against our people while serving in Margaret Thatcher's government.

Peter Carrington, another fifth-columnist, was one-time Chairman of the secret world government, known as the Bilderbergers. It was Carrington who sold out our fellow Europeans in Rhodesia, and put that once-great country under the control of the murderous tyrant, Robert Mugabe.

With the likes of Brittan and Carrington spreading political poison into the mind of the young Nick Clegg, it is no wonder his thinking is anti-British in the extreme.

IF A LIE IS REPEATED OFTEN ENOUGH PEOPLE WILL COME TO BELIEVE IT

The Daily Mail, along with all other tabloid newspapers, would have us believe that the British armed forces are fighting against Islamic extremists, and that no other combatant entity exists. However, there is another extremely powerful force which is seldom held to account for its actions. That is the one that governs world affairs and has set Christian against Muslim, and Muslim against Christian. This secretive, manipulative and deceitful movement gives loyalty to no nation, religion or race. It exists in order to create an undisputed, world-government dictatorship. This is its ultimate objective. However, if enough good, decent and moral people were to work together, they could prevent the manipulative and covetous, warmongering clan from becoming rulers of the world. An unholy alliance is able dictate government policy due to it holding many key positions. However, these secretive groups that conspire against us are relatively small. They can only rule over us for as long as the public is prepared to suffer them.

Daily Mail

HERO AND THE HATEMONGER

One is a maimed soldier who launched the Poppy Appeal yesterday. The other's an Islamic fanatic, freed from a London jail on the same day, who immediately began preaching vile lies about British troops

Don't allow our armed forces to be mobilised for immoral purposes. Anti-nationalist organisations have instigated most of the wars that have taken place during the past three hundred years. Although these self-serving bodies never engage in battle, they always profit from their warmongering activities at the expense of the combatant nations.

The American, British, Germans and French people control no military forces, for they were commandeered by world-government people decades ago.

YARD SLIDES INTO OBLIVION

In 1999 the once-mighty Govan shipyard closed. This was due in part to a series of communist instigated strikes during the 1970s.

Worse still was the deliberate sabotage and closure of our world-leading aircraft companies by early post-war governments, both Labour and Conservative. This was done in order to allow America, without competition, to become the world's leading aircraft manufacturer.

According to Parliament the loss of British industry is nothing to worry about. We have moved on, we are told, to more enlightened times,and can rejoice instead at having gay sections in public services. Here we see a police officer winning a gay "contest".

On the left are crew members from HMS Illustrious -- a man dressed as a woman and his girly companion: would they strike fear into an enemy?

Is it the image the Royal Navy wants to project? Unfortunately, with its female crew members and gay sections we believe it is!

The diagram on the right shows how socialist and neo-conservatives are two arms of the same entity. That is the internationalist force which is crushing every nation.

VOTERS' DECISIONS DEFY LOGIC

For the past fifty years politicians have been elected who treat the public like dirt, work against the national interest while bullying, intimidating and smearing the names of all the decent people who dare criticize them. In order to keep their jobs, public sector workers in the UK have to persecute their own people. This insane state of affairs is taking place throughout Western Europe and America. Even Canadians, Australians and New Zealanders are not immune from such irrational thinking. Due to Western influence around the world, conditions have plummeted, to the extent that countless millions of people are desperate to leave their own homeland. This is all due to a programme of banker-driven anti-nationalism.

SCOOP - AL GORE ADMITS HIS RACIST GUILT

During August 2011, Al Gore the former US Vice President, admitted that his group had used smears of racism to silence critics of the non-white, foreign invasion. He explained how natural moves by White Americans to protect their race were overcome. "There came a time when racist comments would come up in conversation and in ten years past they were just natural", he said. "Then came a time when people would say 'Why do you talk that way?' Slowly the conversation was won. By a monstrous abuse of the mass media, education, advertising and politics, the haters of the White race managed to overwhelm the populace and stifle free expression. Through a vile and criminal act of attempted genocide, Al Gore and his kind claim to have had success; in what we cannot be sure, for they certainly have never won the argument.

The reason Al Gore mentioned "mind-manipulation" was that he claims a similar smear attack needs to be mounted against global-warming sceptics. He said that society had succeeded in marginalising racists in the civil rights era. He then went on to voice the opinion that those questioning the veracity of climate change will be seen in the same negative path.

The word "racist" was brought into use by the White genocide mob, at the time of the Black, civil rights movements. This was a time when the establishment was actively encouraging and supporting Black Africans in their challenge to European authority. Al Gore said that those who do non-believe in global warming will be made to look like social lepers and outcasts. It is an explosive admission that those given the racist label were equally abused.

Moves to wipe out the White race in the United Kingdom began in earnest during the 1960's. At that time an army of new, young teachers, who had been brainwashed with nation-wrecking thoughts at colleges and universities, took up appointments in our schools. Thousands of other such graduates easily found work in the public sector, and the BBC, from where anti-British and pro-immigrant thoughts could be broadcast. We must all have seen in print calls from the powerful anti-White lobby to have someone sacked either because, that person holds traditional British values, or belongs to a patriotic group that our enemies have smeared and marginalised.

The first Race Relations Act wasj introduced in 1965 in order to make it a criminal offence to try and ensure the continuance of the British people. This is nothing short of a conspiracy against us, perpetrated by our own government. When governments want to persecute and unfairly treat the people they are supposed to represent, it is common practice to employ aliens to carry out the terrible deeds. The first Race Relations Act of 1965 was introduced to parliament by the Labour Attorney General. Frank Soskice, a Russian Jew. Further Race Relations Acts were devised partly by the Board of Jewish Deputies. The Jewish Chronicle stated that amendments must be made to the Race Relations Act since it wasn't working the way they wanted it to.

Since then the Home Office, Foreign Office and Inland Revenue have become chaotic and inefficient. This is due to workers, many from the Third World, being employed for their multi-racial views, rather that their ability to do the job.

It is not only politicians who have used sledge-hammer, mind-bending techniques to change public opinion, television script-writers are masters at it. Johnny Speight, a traitor to his own race, wrote the "Till Death Us Do Part" television series, which ran from 1965 to 1975. It has been established that the aim of the project was to make anyone objecting to the foreign invasion of our country appear uncaring, bigoted, stupid and unreasonable. The main character, Alf Garnett, is a loud-mouthed, poorly educated Londoner, who by careful scripting, appears to be incapable of giving a reasoned argument for the way he thinks. Alf Garnett was played by Warren Mitchell, a member of London's, large Jewish, community which did much to get Britain to war in 1939, and later bolster mass immigration. Johnny Speight explained it thus, "Alf Garnett was an unlikeable person. We tried to give the impression that anyone agreeing with Enoch Powell was equally repugnant. Tony Booth, Cherie Blair's father, played the part of Alf Garnett's son-in-law.

Our list of subscribers now goes back a long way. Unless we were notified, we have no way of knowing if you are still at this address. We would appreciate it, therefore, if you were to write to the Hemel Hempstead PO box or phone, or text 07984 775 937, letting us know you have received this copy of the Flame.

The Flame website, www.theflameuk.com is now up and running. It will, however, take some months to get all the pages up, and present it at its best. We would appreciate it if you would make the site known to those around you who are concerned about the deliberate destruction of our country by the political establishment.

Muslims and Jews are much better than Christians at getting their people together regularly as a separate entity. As a result they are able to defend their group and plan ways of achieving their ambitions. Because they meet in large numbers it is easy for them to set up committees to deal with every aspect of their welfare. As an outsider no Christian Englishman would be welcome at such racist gatherings.

It is not in the nature of Europeans to behave in the way of immigrants, and certainly not while living in their own homelands. As a result they are losing ground to better-organised newcomers. The Race Relations Acts were designed to try and prevent Christian Europeans getting together as a separate group and securing their future, thus forcing them, through race-mixing, to wipe themselves out. We should therefore oppose all forms of multi-racialism and organise ourselves, as rapidly as possible, into social, White European Christian groups. At the same time we must expose and remove from public office all those who are working to destroy our race, nations, culture, traditions and Christian religion. Of this the Labour, Liberal and Conservative Parties, as well as communists, are all guilty.

LIVING UNDER AN ILLUSION

For hundreds of years most Englishman believed that Parliament worked exclusively for them. But this is not the case at all. Since the time of Oliver Cromwell, there has been a Jewish deputation exerting pressure on Parliament which is competing against us. There are always a number of corrupt MP's who will use their position to further their own greedy ambitions, often at the expense of the public. These of course are not working for the people either. Over the years so many Zionists, Marxists and money-making career politicians have entered Parliament that the British are no longer represented. The British have in fact become a disenfranchised and heavily-attacked people within a land they are no longer able freely to declare their own country.

In the Jewish News dated 22nd September 2011 the three major political party leaders competed to prove who was the most dedicated to the Zionist cause. David Cameron said "I would like to wish everyone in the Jewish community a Shanah Tovah. I would like to pay tribute to the tremendous contribution your community has made to this country and continues to make each year. Last year Dayan Ehrentreu gave me a copy of the Lexicon written by my great, great-grandfather, Emile Levita, a German Jew who came to this country 150 years ago. Let me reaffirm that, with me, you have a Prime Minister whose belief in Israel is unshakeable." Nick Clegg said "Shana Tovah", - "a strong society is one that has strong communities. That's what makes our society healthier, happier and more harmonious." What bilge! How can a country that has been divided, during the past forty years, into around 300 competing ethnic, religious and cultural groups be more harmonious than the single united, White Christian British nation that existed in 1948 – except of course for the old, long-standing enemy within.

Ed Milliband, whose family came to Britain to further the Zionist/Marxist attack upon our race and nation, said (speaking as a Jew), "As we reflect on the year passed we remember our achievements and take time to celebrate them."

Michael Gove, the Education Secretary, addressed the UJIA annual dinner saying "I am proud to be a friend of Israel." Wouldn't it be nice for a politician to declare himself a friend of the British? He went on "When I was a teenager I was a socialist. In my 20's I was a journalist. But I was born and I live, and will die, proudly a Zionist." This is why the British have become outcasts.

THE EU HAS BECOME A BURNING ISSUE. FACTS - VAT, an EU tax, is reducing everyone's income by around 20%. As a result, a family living on £200 a week will only have approximately £160 to spend. We do not need to be in the EU to sell manufactured goods. Products will sell if the design, quality and price are right, for instance Japan and China prosper without being in the EU. Britain sold a damn sight more goods before it went into the EEC, (now called the EU.) The "internationalist" forces that took control of Britain in 1939 are so determined that Britain will become part of a new united Europe that they brought the UK down. Having bankrupted our country with their world- war, they went on to say, "The British won't see any advantage in joining a 'united Europe' until their country is reduced to the level of Poland. So In 1946 Parliament began sabotaging and getting rid of Britain's industries as fast as it could. At the same time they worked to bring an end to the British Empire which was our major trading market, while abandoning the close relationship we had with our relatives in the White Commonwealth, (Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and Rhodesia). All three major parties have been guilty of deliberately turning the UK into a third world country.
